Our wine week edition 'L'Art du Vin' is back and better than ever!

Dear wine lover,

It's been a while since we last hosted a wine week. That's why we're especially excited to welcome you once again in our world of wine, gastronomy and culture in the beautiful southwest of France.

We're starting fresh — with even bigger focus on detail, experience and pure wine enjoyment.

The heart of our relaunch?

🍷 'L'Art du Vin' – an exclusive wine week in the Cahors region, from 11 to 18 October 2025

This week is a unique journey to five renowned wineries, paired with refined lunches, wine workshops, charming gîtes and an unforgettable 5-course dinner.

Experience the good life in the southwest of France, together with a small group of like-minded bon vivants.

Immerse yourself in taste, culture, and nature — and take time for what truly matters.

A new chapter, the same passion

Besides this wine week, we're also working on new plans, fresh collaborations, and an inspiring approach to how we want to share our story with you. You'll hear more in the coming months so stay tuned!

We look forward to sharing this journey with you once again.

'Santé & à bientôt!'
